

ENVIRONMENT POLICY

Wood Mitchell Printers Ltd is a company founded in 1901 in Hanley, Stoke-On-Trent that produces high quality print for many local and international companies.

Through working with both customers and suppliers, Wood Mitchell Printers Ltd, recognises its work has the potential to have both a local and global impact on the natural and built environment and, as such, the quality of life for those living within the locality of company activities.

In order to ensure that all company activities are managed in a way that will prevent, control or minimise any real or potential impacts on the environment, Wood Mitchell Printers Ltd is committed to the implementation and maintenance of a documented Environmental Management System (EMS) for all of its business activities located at Festival Park, Stoke-on-Trent.

Through the EMS and the conduct of its business, led by the Chairman, Wood Mitchell Printers Ltd is committed to the prevention of pollution and continually improving its environmental performance, and will:

- Implement and maintain an ISO 14001 certified environmental management system.
- Comply with all relevant environmental legislation, regulations and other requirements that relate to the company's environmental aspects.
- Set and review at least annually, environmental objectives and targets in order to ensure continual improvement.
- Utilise resources in a sustainable manner, using recyclable and re-useable products wherever possible.
- Update and improve company procedures in light of new knowledge, understanding and changes to business activities.
- Communicate Wood Mitchell Printers Ltd Environmental Policy to all persons working for or on behalf of the company, the public, partners, contractors and suppliers.
- Make the Environmental Policy available to the public on request.

This policy will be implemented within the framework of an environmental management system designed to meet the requirements of BS EN ISO 14001:2004. It is the responsibility of all employees to implement this policy together with their collective and individual responsibilities.
